AWARD

Counsel for the respondent and the respondent in person appeared. The second wife of the petitioner has also appeared. It is stated that Mr. Anil Kumar is on Gulf and likely to come to India only after one year. The lower court has directed the custody of the daughter of the Anil Kumar to the respondent-Purantharan Nair, the maternal grand father. The parties are not disputing about the custody. The only desire for Anil Kumar when he comes, is to see daughter, either in his house or in the house of Purantharan Nair. That can be allowed. No orders are required.

Appeal disposed of as above.
